

7. Land use planning and zoning;
  8. Real estate securities syndication;
  9. Accounting and taxation as applied to real property;
  10. Land development;
  11. Advanced real estate appraising;
  12. Real estate marketing procedures related specifically to actual real estate knowledge;
  13. Timeshares, condominiums, and cooperatives;
  14. Brokerage office management;
  15. Use of calculators/computers as applied to the practice of real estate;
  16. Business administration, including, but not limited to, business operations management, human resources management, and business taxation;
  17. Personal safety issues for the real estate agent and consumer;
  18. Real estate negotiation and real estate business communications, and;
  19. Cultural diversity as applied to the practice of real estate.
- I. For each additional offering of an approved course after the initial offering, there is a fee of $10.00. This fee must be submitted at least ten (10) days prior to the date the course is offered again.
- J. Each offering entity must notify the Ohio Division of Real Estate and Professional Licensing in writing and at least ten (10) days in advance of the additional course offering date of: an approved course, a change in an offering date of an approved course, and any change in the location, time, instructor, or course content of an approved course.
- K. All course providers must submit an attendance roster of licensees who successfully completed each course. The roster must be submitted using the Online Roster Entry within fifteen (15) days after completion of the course. A user ID and password will be forwarded to the Continuing Education Provider upon application approval.
- L. The offering entity shall furnish the attendee and attendance certificate within thirty (30) days after the completion of the offering.
- M. Course approval (or denial) will be sent by letter approximately fifteen (15) days after the application has been received by this office. If it is approved, this letter will include the certification number of the course and the date it is effective.

NOTE: The Superintendent may revoke approval of a course for continuing education credit for failure to comply with these requirements.

If you have any questions concerning this application or the requirements, please contact the Education Section of our office at (614) 466-4100.